

8.00pm 'Come All Ye' Cornish music and song session at The Cornish Arms. With the St Aubyn Singers. All welcome. Free entry.

Sunday 4th September

10.30am – 11.am "Blas a Gernewek – A Taste of Cornish" session. Penpol School. Join Will Coleman, Pednithan, Artistic Director of Golden Tree Productions, for 'Blas a Gernewek' / 'A Taste of Cornish' He'll be spinning a yarn and telling the tales of the much-loved characters from his 'Tales from Porth' books with a fun, family-friendly introduction to the Cornish Language.

11.30am Heritage Walk led by John Pollard Kampyer a'gan Ertach

Guided walk looking at the development of Hayle from 'Celtic Saints to Marine Renewables', visiting key sites and describing the role of The Port of Hayle World Heritage Site throughout the last three centuries.' Open to all, free entry. Meet at Hayle Swimming Pool

3pm Evensong in Cornish at Phillack Parish Church, All welcome.

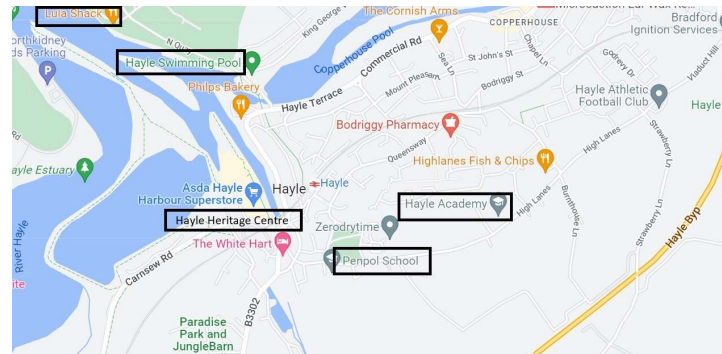

Entertainment: The Bird in Hand / Lulashack/The Cornubia Inn / The White Hart Hotel

Various local bands, from traditional to Karaoke, each evening from Friday—Sunday.

All weekend

A Vision for Hayle: Public Consultation : Library/ Passmore Edwards Institute/ Hayle Heritage Centre/Asda

An opportunity for the community of Hayle to have their say about a new vision for the Town. Hayle Town Team and Town Council have teamed up with two consultancies Situ8 and Meiloci to help reach out to the community and gather ideas and valuable experiences of living and working in Hayle and how we can have a shared 'Vision for Hayle'.

There are several car parks in Hayle as well as on-street parking in some places. For the Gorsedh ceremony itself, there is parking at Hayle Academy. The major venues are marked on the map above. For further information see the Hayle Town Council website.

Gorsedh Kernow Esedhvos Festival of Cornish Culture is supported by Hayle Town Council and many local organisations and volunteers.

Meur ras yn feur!

Esedhvos Festival of

Cornish Culture

Hayle

1st September -

4th September 2022

Thursday 1st September

5pm—7pm

Passmore Edwards Institute, Dennis Hollow Room

Exhibition of Gorsedh Kernow Adults and Young People's Award winning entries plus the Grand Bard's Chair @ the Passmore Edwards Institute. The Grand Bard's Chair was designed, made and donated in 1982 by bard Leslie Hever Libby, Pengover, of St Ives near Liskeard. The Chair incorporates all the legends, past history, activities and festivals that are so much a part of Cornwall. Free entry.

7pm—9pm Awards Evening

Presentation to winners of Adults and Young People's Awards by Pol Hodge, Mab Stenak Veur Grand Bard of Cornwall @ Hayle Day Care Centre. Evening hosted by Tamsin Spargo, Myrgh an Eythin.
By invitation only

Friday 2nd September

A day celebrating Hayle and Cornwall

Bards and Baritones: A history of Hayle Male Voice Choir and the Cornish Gorsedh in Hayle

Berdh ha Baritonysi: Istory Keur Lev Gwer Heyl ha Gorsedh Kernow yn Heyl

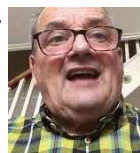

Gorsedh Kernow's founder and its first Grand Bard, Henry Jenner (1838-1934) lived at Bospowes, Hayle, with his wife and renowned author Kitty Lee. Their contributions to the preservation and celebration of Cornish Culture impact our daily lives still today.

This exhibition explores this history and that of another legacy of Cornwall's industrial era, male choral singing. Hayle's own Male Voice Choir (by this time having amalgamated with Praze), gifted the town with song until it was sadly dissolved in August 2019.

Open 31 August – 9 September at Hayle Heritage Centre.

10am—5pm Exhibition of Gorsedh Kernow Young People's Awards and Adults Awards & Competitions entries. Passmore Edwards Institute. Free entry.

11.30am and 2pm: A History of Hayle – a talk by Trevor Smitheram in the Drawing Office at Hayle Heritage Centre. Suggested donation of £3.

1pm: The Cornish National Music Archive

A presentation on the work of the Cornish National Music Archive which Gorsedh Kernow has supported and sponsored. Kate Neale.

10am—1.30 and 2pm—4.30pm

Walk - archaeology and wildlife of Godrevy Warren.

The Towans Ranger, Martin Rule and consultant archaeologist, Jacky Nowakavski are offering two walks. 'Come and explore the amazing high land at Godrevy Warren, to learn about where farming started in Britain and the role played by sand and connectivity in this supposedly quiet corner of Kernow'.

Maximum of 15 people per walk. To book a place on either walk, contact martinrule@talktalk.net

10am Kows ha Koffi—Lulas

A chance for Cornish speakers and those interested in learning to get together for coffee and chat! Come and join in, listen and learn.

12pm—4pm Story Republic

Performances by this popular group of storytellers

1pm—4pm. Tours of the Masonic Hall

The historic Masonic Hall, originally part of the White Hart Hotel, will be open to view during the afternoon.

7.30pm Cornish Troyl/Ceilidh with Alex Taylor and Tros an Treys. Marquee, South Quay. Bring your dancing shoes and join in the fun! Bar. Tickets in advance on Eventbrite <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ceilidh-on-the-quay-tickets-407141259467> and on the door.

Saturday 3rd September

12pm Cornish stalls open at Hayle Academy.

1.30pm Grand Procession of Bards from the school to the Circle in the grounds

2pm Gorsedh Kernow Bardic Ceremony in the grounds of Hayle Academy led by the Grand Bard of Cornwall, Pol Hodge, Mab Stenak Veur with Emily Brown as the Lady of Cornwall. In Hayle Academy if wet.
All welcome.

7pm Gorsedh Concert at Hayle Academy Performers include leading Cornish sing and shanty group Bryhers Boys, music duo MacQuarrie and Toms and local duo Tir ha Tavas, singing in Cornish. Evening hosted by Bert Biscoe, Viajor gans Geryow. Tickets £8 on the door.

Saturday continued overleaf.....