TRELAWNY SHOUT

TRELAWNY

A good sword and a trusty hand,
A merry heart and true!
King James's men shall understand
What Cornish lads can do.
And have they fixed the where and when?
And shall Trelawny die?
Here's twenty thousand Cornish men
Will know the reason why!

Chorus

And shall Trelawney live?
Or shall Trelawney die?
Here's twenty thousand Cornish men
Will know the reason why!

Out spake their Captain brave and bold:
A merry wight was he:
"If London Tower were Michael's hold,
We'll set Trelawney free!
We'll cross the Tamar, land to land,
The Severn is no stay:
With 'one and all', and hand in hand,
And who shall bid us nay?"

Chorus

"And when we come to London Wall,
A pleasant sight to view,
Come forth! come forth ye cowards all,
Here's men as good as you!
Trelawney he's in keep and hold:
Trelawney he may die:
But twenty thousand Cornish bold
Will know the reason why!"

Chorus

ST PIRAN'S PARADE AND TREWLANY SHOUT

From 11am

Stand on Fore Street to soak up the atmosphere of our spring celebration parade from 11 am! The parade will pause at Tatey Court for speeches, including the Grand Bard of Gorsedh Kernow, Jenefer Lowe, and a blessing led by Rev Becca Bell. Following this, there will be an opportunity for one and all to raise their voices and join us in song with the Trelawny Shout, led by the Red River Singers, before the parade departs and celebrations continue!

HOW GOOD IS YOUR CORNISH?

- Fatla genes? – How's it going
- Mar pleg – please
- My a vynnsa – I would like
- Drog – bad
- Moy tesen – more cake

"FATLA GENES?"

"Drog! My a vynnsa moy tesen mar pleg."

DYNNARGH DTHIS! WELCOME!

It is my pleasure as Town Mayor to welcome you to Redruth's St Piran's Festival Guide. This publication contains details of wasson throughout the town on Saturday, 7th March.

The St Piran's Festival is the first of many festivals and events organised by Redruth Town Council throughout the year. This year, the festival theme is 'Gwenton,' the Kernewek word for Spring. After a long and rather wet winter, it is wonderful to embrace the familiar signs of spring and the hope that they bring to many.

This celebration of spring will be present throughout the day, including the parade, which features community groups, schools and local musicians. As a part of the parade, all are invited to raise their voices and join the Trelawny Shout in a wonderfully patriotic moment.

There is so much to see, do and enjoy throughout the town, so join us in celebrating Cornwall's Patron Saint in the heart of Cornwall!

Gool Perran Lowen, onen hag oll!
Happy St Piran's Day, one and all!

Best wishes,
